Last Chance: Harvest Moon Masquerade Tickets Are Vanishing Fast!

Tickets are vanishing fast for Clover's Harvest Moon Masquerade, presented by Cathy & Walter Isaacson and Gulf Coast Bank & Trust, on Thursday, October 30, 2025. With sponsorships sold out, this is the final opportunity to attend one of New Orleans' premier fall events — hosted at The Josephine on Napoleon, the stunning new venue that's been the talk of the town since its debut.

Guests will enjoy a high-energy performance by Raw Deal, Emmy-nominated emcee Malik Mingo, and a surprise dance performance, costume contest and other immersive entertainment. The evening also features festive bites and a signature cocktail — “The Monster Smash,” a spirited seasonal concoction crafted exclusively for the occasion by award-winning mixologist Neal Bodenheimer.

“The Harvest Moon Masquerade captures the magic of New Orleans in the fall — creative, festive, and full of purpose,” said Kea Sherman, Clover Board President and Event Co-Chair. “Every dollar raised helps fuel Clover’s mission to educate children, strengthen families, and build community.”

Proceeds from the Masquerade directly support Clover’s Whole Family Approach, benefiting more than 8,000 individuals each year through early learning, adult day care, career training, and resident engagement programs.
